5. Air Force Promotions--Military Details: Notice was received last week that eleven of our enlisted detailees had been selected for promotion under the centralized Weighted Airmen Promotion System (WAPS) conducted at the Military Personnel Center in San Antonio, Texas early this month. This was the first cycle for the new computerized promotion system wherein an individual competes for promotion against other airmen in the same grade and career field on an Air Force-wide basis using standard weighted factors as a base for scoring. This is the largest promotion quota this activity has received in two years and attests to the high caliber of personnel furnished us by the Air Force.

6. Army Promotions--Military Details: On 6 May 1970 eight Army Specialist Four's (E-4) detailed to the Agency were promoted to the grade of Sergeant (E-5). Appropriate promotion ceremonies were held at the individuals' respective stations.
